Gentlemen

In going over some mementoes of a visit to London in 1901, the writer came across a medal souvenir — of no intrinsic value — as noted on enclosed envelope.

Should it be of any interest, he will be glad to mail to the museum.

Faithfully yours

John T. Doyle

Dear Mr. Doyle:

We beg to thank you for the medal that you so kindly sent for our collection.

Very truly yours,

Mr. John T. Doyle
440 West 34th Street
New York City.

Dear Mr. Doyle:

We would be very glad to accept your offer of the Naval and Military exhibition medal of 1901 as we do not happen to have this particular medal.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
